

Dragon*Con News: Julie Benz added

Contributed by Matt

I'm probably not going to Dragon*Con this year (I have a wedding and honeymoon to pay for), so this is only for the satisfaction of those attending this year.

Julie Benz has been added to the guest list at Dragon*Con in Atlanta. She joins other Whedonverse alums, James Marsters and Ron Glass thus far. I might be missing a couple people, but I didn't see any others on the official Dragon*Con site.

If I'm not mistaken, this is Julie's second trip to D*C. The only advice I can give her, she probably already knows.....take a big jug of hand sanitizer.
